Press Release

Another successful Designer Road Trip Contest “Winner Event” was held on December 1 at the Scrapbook Cupboard in East Bridgewater, Massachusetts. Ranger Signature Designer Suze Weinberg taught a technique-packed Melt Art workshop filled with exciting projects.

There were Ranger product giveaways, and all in attendance enjoyed the day. There was some excitement when the power went out in the building and surrounding area. Everyone took it in stride, and used the time to enjoy some food, and get to know each other. When power was restored, everyone was able to get right back to creating their Melt Art projects and enthusiastically finished the rest of workshop.

“Suze Weinberg joined us here at Scrapbook Cupboard for a full day workshop featuring UTEE and the Melting Pot. Everyone who attended had an incredible time learning how to create beautiful jewelry, gorgeous acrylic tiles, paperweights and more! Suze showed us over a dozen different ways to create some fabulous pieces of art. We were all amazed at the endless possibilities the Melting Pot and UTEE are capable of. The raves are still coming in from the attendees. We all had so much fun that we can’t wait to have her back again!”
—Beverly Batiste, Owner

This is the second Road Trip Contest “Winner Event” that Ranger has held this year. Two winners were announced at the Summer 2007 CHA Show. The other winning event was held in September at For Keeps Sake, St. Louis, Missouri and taught by Tim Holtz.
